

Sarasvati Productions Goes Back to the 40's

Friday, November 2 - Dust off your fedora and polish up your high heels because Winnipeg's Sarasvati Productions is heading back in time to the 1940's when men were the boss – well maybe not!

Cary Grant was one of Hollywood's biggest romantic and comic male leads and his talents are evident in the 1940's classic film, His Girl Friday. In this classic comedy, Grant plays a newspaper editor opposite on-screen ex-wife and reporter Rosalind Russell, another one of Hollywood's past bright lights.

Join us in a screening of His Girl Friday and help raise operational funds for Sarasvati Productions on Monday, Nov. 19 at 7:30 p.m. at Cinematheque, 100 Arthur St. The ticket price of $15 includes free popcorn, and you can test your Canadian trivia knowledge and win a prize.

A prize will also be given for the best costume with a 1940's or 1950's flare.

Tickets available at www.sarasvati.ca or by calling Andrea at 204-612-1112.

About Sarasvati Productions: Sarasvati Dramatic Theatre Productions and Repertory Inc (founded in Winnipeg in 2000) seeks to inspire artists and audiences through the use of theatre and to provide a space where artists can develop, showcase their skills and celebrate their creativity.*
