

CALL FOR MONOLOGUES

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S WEEK CABARET OF MONOLOGUES

Sarasvati Productions is seeking monologues for female voices by Canadian playwrights for their annual cabaret to celebrate International Women's Week (March 2-8, 2015). This year's theme is 'Super Women' and we are looking for stories about super heroines, women with super powers, or women who have done the impossible. This is your chance to invent a new action figure or write about women who are doing extraordinary things in their lives. Any style is acceptable as long as the piece is under ten minutes in length and written for a female character. Royalties will be paid for use of the monologues.

Please send:

- a letter detailing the monologue's production history, including whether it is from a larger script or a stand alone piece
- a copy of the monologue
- a two-line synopsis of the piece, presenting the context and character
- a short playwright bio (maximum 100 words)

Deadline is August 1, 2014.

All submissions must be e-mailed to:
